Indore.

- Petitioner

V/s

M.P.Paschim Kshetra Vidyut Vitaran Co. Ltd.
Indore.

- Respondent

Shri Syam K. Nair, Mall Manager appears on behalf of the petitioner.

None appears on behalf of the respondent.

2. The petition is filed in the matter of serving HT point connection to a group of consumers in Commercial Multi-storeyed building/private Shopping Complexes (against SMP 13/2006) as per the existing HT supply under the HT agreement dated 20.05.2006.

3. During the hearing today, the matter regarding tariff to be charged from the petitioner since the date of connection was discussed. The representative of the petitioner has stated that the above matter is to be decided by the Commission.

4. Having heard the petitioner, the Commission decides that the tariff to be charged by the licensee from the petitioner company for the period from the date of connection be as under :

- a. For the period from the date of connection to 14.04.2008 i.e. prior to the effective date of tariff order for FY 2008-09 : The tariff may be charged as per the Tariff Schedule LV-2 (for non-domestic users) as there was no tariff determined by the Commission for non-domestic users availing supply at single point as a group user in Shopping Mall. On the above tariff a rebate equal to 5% of the total units recorded by the HT meters be allowed on account of transformation losses, line losses, maintenance of 33/0.4 KV transformers, cables, expenditure on billing and collection activities, etc.

b. For the period from 15.04.2008 : The tariff is to be charged as per Tariff Schedule HV 3.3 applicable for Shopping Malls.

5. The Commission further directs the Commission Secretary to refer the matter to the State Government to consider investigating the circumstances and fixing responsibility for irregularity in providing single point HT connection to the Shopping Mall which was not permissible as per then prevailing tariff orders.

6. With the above directions, the Petition No. 69/2007 stands closed.

Ordered accordingly.
